

Pallbearers and Gamblers

Its 1971 and the Vietnam war rages. When Michael Dibiaseo returns from Vietnam, the U.S. Army assigns him to the Honor Guard, which act as pallbearers for soldiers killed in Vietnam. These experiences turn Michael into a bitter opponent of the war. After his discharge from the Army, he continues to attend the funerals of fallen soldiers. Michaels family has been involved with the Chicago Mafia for years. His father had been good friends with Al Capone, and his older brother Sergio currently works with the Mafia in their Stardust Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. Sergio becomes embroiled in a fatal dispute with a Mafia capo and Michael gets involved. The brothers decide to get revenge by stealing the year-end skim from the Desert Inn seven million dollars.
