

Elements of architecture (Architectural design profile)

This volume is devoted to the work of Rob Krier, an influential German architect, and is lavishly illustrated with drawings and photographs. Includes Krier's essay, A criticism of modern architecture, which was later published in Krier's Architectural Composition. Major topics covered in this volume are Elements I: Interiors; Elements II: Facades; and Elements III: Ground Plan and Building Form. This Architectural Design Profile is a special publication from Architectural Design magazine.
