

Conversation with God 1970: Channelled messages for Ever Healthy and Ever Happy Life

The main points of Avyakt Murlis of 1970 are compiled here in the form of question and answers to understand the teachings of God who is lovingly called as Baba, as well as to know what Baba wants children to practice and imbibe. God, the Father, whose birthday is celebrated as ShivJayanti (the birth of Benefactor) appeared in the body of Sri Brahma (Adam-the father of humankind), from 1936 at this iron age, who was also known as Dada Lekhraj, the founder of Brahmakumaris world spiritual university, Mount Abu, Rajasthan. The versions spoken since 1936 is known as sakar murlis. After Sri Brahma (Adam) left the body in 1969, Supreme Soul and Adam-Brahmas soul together appeared in the body of Dadi Gulzar and versions spoken by God, the Father through her is known as Avyakt Murlis. Murlis are the elevated versions of Gita spoken by God Himself which were later called in the name of Bhagwad Gita. These Godly versions were recalled by Sage Vyas and since God was not known personally during that period, Sri Krishnas name was mentioned in the Bhagwad Gita. Sri Krishna is none other than Sri Brahma (Adam) who appears as Sri Krishna in golden age. The main points of 1970 Avyakt Murlis are compiled here and it speaks on: 1. To practice becoming bodiless every now and then and maintain bodiless stage even whilst performing actions. 2. Receive subtle powers becoming bodiless. 3. To become aware of soul. 4. Experience all divine qualities being a point. 5. Become powerful enough to attach and detach in all relations and actions, becoming independent. 6. Achieve success in all endeavours. 7. Become embodiment of love and power. 8. Methods to imbibe all virtues. Hope you read these elevated versions of God, the Father and pass it on to others.
