

A humorous, heartwarming look at the many ways movies and TV shows inspire our lives. Movies and television receive a bad rap in our society, yet the best shows and movies have the power to weave themselves into the fabric of our lives. They do this because at their heart, they are stories about us. Using entertaining examples from popular shows and movies, this book reveals the secrets of on-screen storytelling and demonstrates how these insights can improve the stories of our lives. Perfect for movie and TV buffs, fiction writers, screen writers, motivation seekers, and all who love stories and storytelling.
