

You are already a masterpiece. Have you ever wanted to know the secret to creating a life you love? How do you discern what's really standing in your way of becoming all you were born to be? In Behind the Clutter, June Saruwatari opens her home and her heart to reveal the transformative decluttering approach that has kept her in demand as a lifestyle, business and relationship coach, and professional organizer to investment bankers, attorneys, judges, artists, politicians, writers, rabbis, university professors, doctors, mothers, children, Hollywood producers, and celebrities. The key to your best life is to master the spaces of your body, mind, soul, and heart, and let go of the clutter within and without. In this part spiritual memoir, part self-help book, June vulnerably and relentlessly examines her own internal and external stuff through her unique fourfold lens of TruthLoveMeaningPurpose: Truth: What is the truth of my current situation? Love: Do I absolutely love this? Meaning: What is the meaning of this for me? Purpose: What purpose does this serve in my life? With fearlessness, vulnerability, and childlike enthusiasm, June digs deep to uncover the thoughts, feelings, memories, and beliefs that lay behind the clutter - and shares effective strategies to identify both internal and external clutter, let it go, and create space for miracles. As you go behind the clutter with June as your guide, you'll discover that you are your own best expert at designing your life. Learn to apply your own TruthLoveMeaningPurpose to all the stuff of life, and uncover the masterpiece of yourself that's been there all along.
