

Iris and Landon (Watkins Cove Book 3)

Iris Mills has never dated ever. Unlike her friends she's just never met anyone she's been interested in going out with, and besides that, she's never felt overly confident around guys she hasn't known her whole life. But then she meets Landon Ross, and he's unlike anyone she's ever met before. Charming and confident, but also very sweet and gentle, and fiercely protective, Iris can't help but feel drawn toward him. There's just one problem; Landon lives in Boston, and only plans on being in Watkins Cove for the summer while he visits his family. Landon insists that won't be an issue, though, and with the help of his younger sister, Arden, he manages to convince her to give him a chance, and before Iris can help it, she finds herself falling in love. But not everyone is quite so happy, and as she and Landon grow closer together, two of the people she loves most draw further apart. Can she find a way to help them find their way back to each other, or have things finally reached the point of no return?
