

The Boy Scouts Patrol

[...]one match do for a whole company. Crickets! exclaimed Pepper, that was going some. Suppose you let me show you how to cook without a stove. Jack, see if you cant find some dry leaves and small twigs. Rand, you can get some bigger pieces, plenty of them. Thats the kind. And, Pepper, you and Don bring up a lot of that clay from down there by the water. Thats the stuff. Now wrap your fish up in a coat of clay. Never mind the scales. Coat them all over and pile them up here as fast as you get them ready. If we only had some flour wed have a dinner in the real scout style. I dont see how you are going to cook them in that clay, put in Jack. We are going to bake them, replied the colonel. Build a good, hot fire on top of them. Like they do with a clam bake? inquired Rand. Thats the idea, said the colonel, who, while talking, had been packing the fish in two layers on a flat rock. Now put your leaves onnot too manylay on your pieces, Rand, pile them up so as to leave a draught. Thats it; now, Jack, touch it off. Jack struck a match which flickered for a minute and went out. Tut! Tut! cried the colonel, that wont do! Oh, it doesnt matter, said Jack, Ive plenty more. No, corrected the colonel, you should rely on only one. Now, suppose we are out on the plains and this is your last match. Let me show you how to do it.[...].
