

Is the Bible Divinely Inspired -- Special Edition (2nd Edition)

When an artist creates a piece of art, we expect to find significance in every detail. If God has written the Bible, we should likewise expect to find divinity in the details. Is this the case? This book surveys the supernatural inspiration expressed in the pages of scripture. Beginning with the general defense of the Bible's historic veracity, the divinity is displayed by exploring Messianic prophecies, patterns of salvation history, and eschatology. This work is the effort of three years of research, writing, and editing, combining the findings that were published in such booklets as Mashiach Ben Elohim, The Book of Genesis: Should We Believe It?, The Book of Revelation: A Sketch of the Apocalypse, and several others. (This is the second edition of this book.)
