

Dreaming Big (Hardback)

Dreaming Big helps readers define their Life Dream and experience an entirely new level of natural energy. Co-authored by Bobb Biehl and Paul Swets, Dreaming Big describes a Life Dream as a crystal clear vision of the difference the reader wants to make in the future vision so compelling that it energizes for a lifetime. Not everyone has a big dream. Many don't know how to clear away the fog and confusion in their lives. Some are afraid to dream for fear their dreams will not come true. Others become content with mediocrity. Consequently, their work suffers. They go about their responsibilities without vision, without enthusiasm and without an eagerness to solve problems, without hope. Dreaming Big understands where readers are and helps them grow past the barriers that hold them back. It takes them on a 31 day personal growth journey. Each of the five weeks focuses on practical strategies that motivate positive change. 1. DISCOVERING YOUR DREAM 2. REFINING YOUR DREAM 3. LIVING YOUR DREAM 4. TEACHING YOUR TEAM TO DREAM 5. ENCOURAGING YOUR TEAM Each chapter is interactive. Readers are encouraged to think deeply about their lives by answering profound questions and jotting down their thoughts. Heart Probes at the end of every chapter help the reader to look within, sort through any confusion and gain clarity. Instead of merely telling readers to dream big, it shows them how. Biehl and Swets help the reader to excel, to live on the edge of their potential, to be the best person they can be. Helen Kellers quote summarizes the theme of Dreaming Big: One can never consent to creep when one feels an impulse to soar.
