

Freed From Darkness

Tormented by your past, reliving the agony of your choices and unable to make any sense of yourself and who you have become? Are you a prisoner of your past, unable to step out of your personal prison? Is there some dark moment in your life overshadowing your present and forecasting your future, a moment you would give anything to be able to change, a moment that defines you or more precisely, redefines you? Is the joy of life eluding you? Are you left wondering how you became the person you are today, and how you lost yourself along the way? What happened to you? How did things ever get to this point in your life? How did you become so inconsequential? You are not the person you were intended to be, but you are not the person you think you are either. I was just eighteen an awful young age to make a choice that would haunt me for almost forty years! Now I am free and the source of my freedom compels me to free you as well. This book is testimony to that freedom, the story of shackles unlocked and chains broken. Follow my journey and walk into the light and be Freed From Darkness, once and for all!
