

Goodbye Death, Goodbye

While sitting in a coffee shop one day, Laura meets an altogether strange and intriguing man named Daniel. The two share a deep and intimate conversation, exploring topics ranging from spiritual to philosophical subjects and focusing specifically upon death itself. But before she leaves, Daniel delivers a warning: Be careful, one must pay attention to things to avoid accidents. In a bizarre twist, a gust of wind traps Lauras arm in a heavy door and severely injures her, landing her in the hospital. When Laura tells her best friend, Lluvia, about Daniel and asks her to bring him to the hospital, Lluvia is sure her friend is nuts. Besides, the last thing Lluvia wants to deal with is a highly spiritual guy when she believes God abandoned her long ago. Nevertheless, Lluvia finds Daniel at the coffee shop and unexpectedly runs into her ex-boyfriend, Fabian. The experience so rattles her that she pours out her heart to Daniel. He engages her in a spiritual conversation and to her astonishment, Lluvia actually listens. The experience leaves both girls wondering just who Daniel is, and what purpose he serves in their lives. As the mystery around Daniel deepens, Laura and Lluvia embark on a journey of spiritual discovery that will take them beyond anything they can imagine ...
