

Learning to Stay: The 12 Keys

Learning to Stay is an empowering journey of enlightenment to Divine self-discovery and change as experienced through the eyes of one woman's escape from her addictive affair. Just as she was ready to leave her marriage and follow in the footsteps of her ancestors, the truth of her deception was revealed. This confrontation opened the door to confession, ultimately leading to her decision to stay and fight for her marriage. Her choice to stay birthed The 12 Keys. Each of the keys builds upon the next prompting change and immense personal growth. The 12 Keys are sure to heal anyone suffering from an addiction, be it alcohol, drugs, sex, food, self-pity or even negativity. Thought provoking questions and exercises are provided at the end of each chapter, encouraging the reader to participate, rather than merely observe. These amazing keys are sure to revolutionize every 12 step program in existence today. Stephanie grew up in the Midwest. She has two sisters and a brother. As siblings they witnessed several divorces between each of their parents. Consequently, Stephanie desperately wanted to know what a healthy, happy, long lasting marriage looked like. She attended Grace University seeking her Masters Degree in counseling with an emphasis on marriage. Although she learned the techniques within her mind, she didn't quite trust the principles within her heart and thus struggled in relationships. It wasn't until she met her husband did she experience true commitment and finally understood what her professors were teaching. Her desire for change propelled her into her passion today. Stephanie and her husband Chris are certified Life Coaches with Going Next Level People Development and authorities on premarital and marital coaching. They have developed the 12 Key Seminars in order to help others escape from addictions and find success in marriage.
