

Ma Pettengill

Ma Pettengill -- actually Mrs. Lysander John Pettengill -- is quite a character. Take this scene, near the front of this collection of Harry Leon Wilsons Ma Pettengill stories. Theres a magazine on the table, and our narrator allows as how the man on the cover has A beautiful face. Ma Pettengill takes the magazine from him and studies the dainty thing. Yes, hes certainly beautiful, Ma Pettengill assents. Hes as handsome as a Greek goddess. Thus does the woman ambiguously praise that famous screen star, J. Harold Armytage. And the money he makes! His salary is one of them you see compared with the Presidents so as to make the latter seem a mere trifle. Thats a funny thing. I bet at least eighteen million grown people in this country never did know how much they was paying their president till they saw it quoted beside some movie stars salary in a piece that tells how hes getting about four times what we pay the man in the White House.
