

PREDESTINATION

You are about to read of one mans experience over 50 years of thinking about ESP. The result of this is PREDESTINATION. Over the last two years, the events have been increasing which are directing me to write this book. If you wish to get the most out of the book, you should read it with an open mind. There are several books about this subject and the information gained from reading those books should not be mixed up in the thinking process that we are creating with this new book. You must realize that mistakes can be made by the souls, minds or any body involved in this process. When you hear stories about people dying and entering a tunnel with a bright light at the other end of the tunnel and a voice says Go back! Its not your time. It is probably, an angel who is correcting the mistake. If there is one mistake, there are others. Contrary to what you think, these mistakes make the book more realistic. Everyone at one time or another has made a mistake. This carries through the whole system and it becomes a more rational book. Good Luck! Enjoy the reading! I thoroughly enjoyed writing it.
