

Rivers to Cross and Mountains to Climb

Eighteen year old Dirk Glover and his parents arrived in America in 1851 on the way to the California gold fields to earn money to save their family estate in Scotland. He loses his parents to a raging plague of cholera. Within weeks, his benefactor, John Barrow, is also dead. He was critically wounded by one of three outlaws that had his cabin under siege in their search for John's brother, Alfred, and his little daughter, Nancy.
