

This book was made to share with others who maybe able to relate to it. I have been writing for most of my life and decided that I should collect some of my favorites and publish them. The one thing that motivated me most to put my words to print was my daughter. The event of loosing her to SIDS inspired a few of the more potent poems in this book. I hope some of these words let others know they are not alone in many struggles throughout life. My goal is to offer my heart to others through my words. In doing so I intend to donate an amount of this books earnings to the American SIDS Institute. I believe there is a cure to this awful disease and no one should have to loose a child from it. I appreciate anyone who has taken the time to read this book and I hope that in some way my words have inspired you.
