

Tropical Rush (Manasota Key) (Volume 3)

This is the third book in a series about billionaire philanthropist Lyle Brady. The story continues from where the second book, The Tallahassee Escarcega Affair, left off. The first book in the series was Keys, Santa Marta Connections which started Lyle on a wondrous three and a half year adventure. For most of Lyle's sixty nine years he was a top rated engineer and very successful business owner. He was born August 1, 1946 about four months after his parents moved to the Dayton, Ohio area. He was a young prodigy with a 180 I.Q. He lost his father to a military plane crash in 1956 and his mother to cancer September 1970. He married his beautiful wife Linda on the sixth of June 1971. For the next thirty four years he focused his life on building and multi-billion dollar business and romancing his wife. Lyle had everything any man could want, until that fateful day in 2005 when a drunk driver, being pursued by local law enforcement, lost control of his car and slammed head-on into Linda's Ford Mustang, killing her instantly. Within months after her death Lyle began the process of selling his businesses and real estate holdings in Ohio and moved to Manasota Key, Florida. With the help of his new Florida attorneys, Roger Sills and Charlene Thomas, Lyle started the L.G. Brady Charity Trust and Foundation in the name of his dear departed wife. For the next six and a half years his life was pretty mundane. A vacation in the Florida Keys in 2012 changed all that and started Lyle on some of the most thrilling and exciting adventure he could have ever imagined.
