

... and - please leave before breakfast!: Thoughts and erotic encounters

It all begins on Oct 3, the German reunification. The main character is addressed by a Filipina, falls in love and leaves Germany to be with her. But life is not a fairytale and few if any people live happily ever after. The protagonist ends up alone in Manila and learns to survive in a boiling never sleeping Megapolis. As Henry Miller and others described the life and love in Paris, this book gives us a glimpse at the fighting and dreaming of a world that is rapidly changing from conservative catholic to a cockpit of fight or die. His white skin becomes the canvas for the dreams of some smart and some less fortunate ladies.
